The U.C. Center for Collaborative Research for an Equitable California, Latin American and Latino Studies Department, and Education Department present

JULIO CAMMAROTA
of the University of Arizona Department of Mexican American Studies

Thursday, May 16, 1:00-3:00 Colloquium, 3:00-5:00 Reception
"Critical Youth Studies and Democratizing Public Education"
Charles E. Merrill Lounge. Limited Space (40). First come first served. Reception will have light refreshments.

Friday, May 17, 1:30-4:00
"Workshop for Grad Students and Faculty: Phases of Youth Participatory Action Research."
Charles E. Merrill Lounge. Registration required. Limited to 20 participants.
In this skill development workshop, participants will gain an understanding of the phases of Youth Participatory Action Research (YPAR) through engagement with “The Social Justice Education Project: Youth Participatory Action Research in Schools” and will learn how to initiate a YPAR project of their own.
Registration: http://www.eventbrite.com/event/6435102565